GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE EASTERN NATIONAL LIVESTOCK SHOW, INC.

In addition to these rules and regulations, exhibits and exhibitors are subject to applicable Junior Show rules and regulations and the rules and regulations of the Department and Divisions they exhibit in.

MEMBERSHIP

Regular membership dues are $30 per year for farm/family membership, $20 per year for individual membership, and $10 per year for Junior Membership. Dues can be paid with entry fees. Make checks payable to "Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc." Dues are for year September, 2009 through August, 2010. Each Exhibitor who enters the Eastern National Livestock Show must pay membership dues or pay non-membership fees.

LOCATION

The Eastern National Livestock Show will be held at the Maryland State Fairgrounds at Timonium, Maryland, located on York Road (Maryland Route 45) eight miles north of Baltimore, Maryland. U.S. Interstate 83 runs adjacent to the west end of the Fairgrounds. To enter the Fairgrounds, exit Interstate 83 at Timonium Road, proceed east to York Road, then north to the Fairgrounds.

MANAGEMENT

All exhibits shall be under the direction and control of the Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc. The Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc. under no circumstances will be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage done to, or occasioned by, or arising from, any animal or articles on exhibition and the exhibitor shall indemnify Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc. and employees thereof against all claims on account of or resulting from the exhibitor's negligent handling of his exhibits.

Any exhibitor or his representative or agent who violates any of these rules and regulations of the Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc., will forfeit all privileges and premiums and may be barred from future participation.

The Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc. reserves the right to add to or amend these rules and regulations as the Board of Directors in its judgment may determine. These rules as amended will be posted in the show office and will be available for review by exhibitors during regular office hours.

The Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc., reserves to a committee of the Board of Directors the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and to settle and determine all concerns, questions, or disputes arising out of or connected with the Eastern National Livestock Show.

The Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc. reserves to a committee of the Board of Directors the right to inspect all animals entered in the show. Treating an animal, internally or externally, with an irritant or counter-irritant, or other substance to artificially change its conformation or appearance for a show is unacceptable. There will be no filling by means of a stomach pump or drench. The use of inhumane fitting, showing and/or handling practices will not be tolerated. Any animal found to be erroneously entered or artificially altered by changing the natural conformation or the color of the hair, wool or hide in any way, shall be evaluated by this committee and any veterinarian or expert appointed by the committee. The committee is hereby authorized, in the event such an animal is declared to be erroneously entered or artificially altered, to bar such animals from competition in the Eastern National Livestock Show, and may bar the exhibitor who entered the animal, his manager or herdsman, or any and all from further participation in the Eastern National Livestock Show. Should the disqualification be determined following the awarding of any banners, ribbons, or premiums, the exhibitor of such animal, upon request of the Eastern National Livestock Show, shall immediately return same to show.

No scales will be permitted on the ground except the official ENLS scales. Disclaimer: Announcements made at the ENLS, take precedent over statements printed in the catalogue. All Cattle Must Use Wash Racks at Cattle Pavilion.

"ANIMAL RIGHTS" DEMONSTRATIONS

"Animal Rights" demonstrations are on the increase across the country. In case of a demonstration during the Eastern National Livestock Show, PLEASE follow the guidelines listed below:

- DO NOT debate with demonstrators
- REMAIN CALM if an event is disrupted
- DO NOT talk to the media regarding the demonstration.

Please alert the Show Officials to any questionable activities. A direct confrontation with demonstrators only insures them the attention they seek.

EXHIBITORS

Exhibitors participating in activities at the Eastern National Livestock Show are responsible to Superintendents of the Departments and Divisions in which they are exhibiting.

Exhibitors are responsible for the proper care of exhibits, equipment, and facilities. Superintendents reserve the privilege of ruling on any such cases Disorderly or disrespectful conduct, drunkenness, or the possession or use of controlled dangerous substances (drugs) will not be permitted. All cattle exhibits must use tanbark, put in place by management.

Exhibitors must furnish their own straw for tie-outs.

Animals must be housed in space assigned by the Superintendent of the respective Department or Division.

All animals must be removed from tie-outs by 8:00 a.m. and are not permitted to tie-out until released time to be announced.

All animals must be available for use in judging contests if requested.

In accordance with the educational policies of the show, all weaning should be done prior to bringing exhibits to the show.

Please Note: Children who have not reached their eighth (8th) birthday prior to January 1, 2009, may enter breeding cattle in any Open Class Breed Division; however, they may not exhibit or accompany the animal in the show ring. The animal(s) may be exhibited by a junior or adult over the age of eight.

Children who have not reached their eighth (8th) birthday prior to January 1, 2009, are ineligible to enter or exhibit in the Junior Heifer Division.

ENTRIES

Entries must be made on printed entry forms furnished by The Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc., or on photocopies thereof. Entries must be made in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the show. Entries will not be accepted unless all applicable information requested on the entry form is provided. Exhibitors must have original registration certificate for all exhibits available at any time during the show. Photocopies of registration certificates will not be acceptable. Copies of Health Papers must be submitted with entry.

Every entry will be subject to the following stipulation: "I (we) hereby make application to enter the animal listed above for premiums at the 2008 Eastern National Livestock Show. I (we) understand that this entry is subject to the rules and regulations as published in the Premium List of said Eastern National Livestock Show and I (we) agree to the provisions contained therein. In consideration of the permission to participate in the Eastern National Livestock Show, I (we) for myself, my heirs, personal representatives and assigns, release, remise and discharge the owners of the premises, the sponsors of the Eastern National Livestock Show and their respective servants, agents, officers, and all other participants in the activities of and from all claims, demands, actions, and causes of actions of any sort, for injury sustained to my person and/or property during my presence on the premises and participation in the activities due to negligence or any other fault. I (we) realize that if I (we) leave early, premiums will be forfeited.

An exhibitor may enter any number in a class, however, only two entries in any class can receive premiums. Except where designated by breed associations, the number of classes and class designation will be determined at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Division. The same animal cannot be entered in both breeding and market classes.

There will be no entry fee or premium for any group classes. Premiums for cow-calf class in most breeds will be paid only by the Eastern National Livestock Show, Inc. All other entry fees are on a per head basis.

Individual animals to be shown in all group classes must have been entered and shown in the appropriate individual classes.

All out of state entries must be accompanied by an APPROVED interstate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. An APPROVED copy of the certificate must be forwarded by the State of Origin to the Animal Health Section, prior to the arrival of the animals. The interstate (CVI) is only valid for 30 days from the date of issue. Health Section, prior to the arrival of the animals. The interstate (CVI) is only valid for 30 days from the date of issue.

Each animal must be identified on the certificates.

All animals will be inspected for general health upon arrival. Those showing clinical signs of ANY contagious or infectious disease must be removed from the Show or Fair. The State Veterinarian reserves the right to the final determination. In such cases the health certificate may be modified, suspended or revoked.

The CVI for Maryland exhibitors must be filled out and completed and signed by an accredited veterinarian within 45 days of the first exhibition.

Approval of all entries for the first showing in Maryland will extend in 60 day increments through the show season, providing that the status of the herd or animal(s) does not change. The CVI must be signed and dated on the reverse side by a MDA Animal Health Official at each event to extend the 60 day effective date.

Where immunization is recommended or required it must be done in conformity with standard procedures and practices consistent with the development of immunity PRIOR to Show or Fair.

All animals brought in for use in judging contests must meet the same health requirements as those coming on the premises for exhibition.

NEWS RELEASE: NEW FAIR & SHOW REGULATIONS FOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS (FEB. 21, 2008)

Rules for the 2008 fair and show livestock exhibition season are now available from the Maryland Department of Agriculture's (MDA) website. www.mda.state.md.us/animal_health/. Hard copies will be available within the next couple of weeks and can be picked up at the time at one of MDA's five regional animal health diagnostic laboratories as well as the headquarters office in Annapolis.

New regulations this year include:

- Maryland exhibitors need to contact their veterinarian within 60 days of their first show to have their animals inspected and an Intrastate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) completed.
- The Intrastate CVI is now valid for up to 180 days from the date of approval.
- Submit the appropriate copies of the CVI for approval to any of the regional MDA Animal Health Laboratories or the headquarters office in Annapolis within 30 days of inspection. One copy will be retained by MDA, the other returned to the exhibitor.

- Self-certification of animal health. On the reverse side of the exhibitor's CVI hard copy or as a separate document downloaded from the MDA website in the "Livestock Exhibitor's Self-Certification of Animal Health" form. This form is to be filled out by the exhibitor prior to transporting their animal(s) to a fair or show stating that the animal(s) show no signs of contagious or infectious disease.

Contact MDA's Animal Health Office at 410-841-5810 or any of the MDA's regional animal health facilities with any questions. Centreville Animal Health Diagnostics Lab, 410-758-0846; College Park Animal Health Diagnostic Lab, 301-314-1870; Frederick Animal Health Diagnostic Lab, 301-694-1548; Oakland Animal Health Diagnostic Lab, 301-334-2185; Salisbury Animal Health Diagnostic Lab, 410-543-6610.

Breeding goat originating outside of Maryland must have an interstate health certificate indicating that goat for show and entire herd were examined within ninety (90) days prior to the show and no symptoms of infectious or communicable disease existed.

PROTESTS

The official judges will make awards in all classes.

Excepting protests of possible erroneous entry or artificial altering of animals, all protests pertaining to eligibility must be submitted twelve (12) hours prior to the beginning of the judging. Protests for any altering or tampering of age shall be submitted within one-half (1/2) hour after the judging of the class involving the protest. A protest must be accompanied by cash or certified check in the amount of $150 which will be refunded if the protest is sustained. Such protests must state plainly the cause of the complaint or appeal and be delivered to the Superintendent of the Department or Division within the time period stated.

The Superintendent will immediately report to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Protests shall not be received or considered if they are based solely on a decision involving the accuracy of judgment on the part of the Judge, Superintendent, or the Committee. No complaint or appeal that judges overlooked an animal will be considered. Judging procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigation and depending upon the basis of the protest, a decision may be withheld until a thorough investigation is completed.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

In addition to these rules and regulations, exhibitors and exhibits in this Division are subject to the General Rules and Regulations and the Junior Rules and Regulations.

Lambs must be the bonafide property of the exhibitor for at least ninety (90) days prior to the opening of the show. Bill of sale may be required on lambs if questions arise about ownership date.

Lambs must weigh a minimum of 80 pounds at the official weigh-in to be eligible for the show. Official weigh-in will be on Saturday, September 19, 2009 beginning at 8:00 AM, there will be no reweighs.

There will be no tolerance in class weights. However, an exhibitor with more than two (2) animals in a class may move the heaviest animal up.

Each exhibitor may show a maximum of seven (7) market lambs.

Lambs must have all their lamb teeth.

Both wether and ewe lambs may be shown. Unwashed sheep will not be allowed in the show ring. Lambs should be shown in short fleece. Lambs may be shown slick sheared. Lambs must be shown by the owner, except when two lambs are in the same class.

All lambs must remain on the fairgrounds and in their pens at all times, except when being moved to and from the show ring, wash rack, or to be trimmed on the trimming stands. Lambs cannot be housed or fed on trailers. Lambs must have clean bedding and may not be haltered, muzzled, or restrained in any other manner. Lambs should be fed and cared for in a humane manner. Any animal showing signs of physical or chemical altering may be banned from the show. Any exhibitor violating these rules will be immediately disqualified from the show.

Exhibitors leaving the fairgrounds early, without superintendent's permission, will forfeit all premiums and be disqualified from future shows.

Pens must be cleaned prior to leaving show. If not, premiums will be forfeited.

Can Show Ewe Lambs in Commercial Breed show. If shown in Breed show must pay entry fees for both Departments and must be entered separately.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

In addition to these rules and regulations, exhibitors and exhibits in this Division are subject to the General Rules and Regulations and the Junior Rules and Regulations.

Market Hogs must be the bonafide property of the exhibitor and must have been owned for at least ninety (90) days prior to the opening of the show.

Each exhibitor is limited to a total entry of six (6) hogs. Both barrows and gilts may be shown.

A hog must weigh a minimum of 210 pounds at the official weigh-in in order to be eligible for the show. Official weigh-in for market hogs will be on Saturday, September 19, 2009 at 9:00 AM. If a question arises over the weight of the animal, that animal will be taken off the scale, the scale will be checked and balanced, and the animal reweighed immediately. An animal in question cannot leave the scale area until the dispute is settled. If an exhibitor leaves the scale area without registering a protest, the scale weight will be assumed to be correct. All disputes will be settled by the Superintendents and the weighmaster. All market hogs will be shown as individuals in classes determined by weight. Class breaks will be determined at the discretion of the Superintendents after all hogs have been weighed. An exhibitor may show as many entries as fall within an individual weight class; however, he shall receive premiums for the two (2) highest placing entries in each class.

No market hog will be allowed to be shown with any dressing of any kind (with the exception of plain water) other than the official paint brand.

Pen assignments will be made and posted at the Superintendent's office.

Pens must be cleaned prior to leaving show. If not, premiums will be forfeited.

Market Hogs released at conclusion of show.

Premiums will be paid to up to ten (10) entries in each class according to the following schedule:

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Each state may enter one (1) 4-H and one (1) FFA team. A team shall consist of four (4) members. The three (3) highest scoring contestants' scores will make up the team score. The alternate contestant will be eligible for individual awards.

The names, ages, and addresses of the four (4) individuals on each State 4-H and State FFA team must be sent on the Department I entry form in this premium list to the Eastern National Livestock Show office no later than September 7, 2009.

ELIGIBILITY

The State 4-H and State FFA Team will be selected in a manner determined by the State 4-H Leader of the State FFA Advisor. Each contestant must have passed his fourteenth (14th) birthday and must not have passed his nineteenth (19th) birthday on or before January 1, 2009.

Each FFA contestant must meet the age qualifications for the National FFA Livestock Judging Contest. 4-H and FFA members who enter into academic or vocational training beyond high school prior to June 1, 2009 are not eligible to compete in contest.

JUDGING

Contestants will judge ten (10) classes of four (4) animals each. There will be three (3) classes of hogs, four (4) classes of beef cattle and three (3) classes of sheep. Both breeding and market classes will be judged in each species. A class shall consist of four (4) animals.

Contestants will be required to give oral reasons on their placings of two (2) designated classes of each species for a total of six (6) sets of reasons. Contestants will be notified at the time of placing as to whether or not oral reasons are required on a class. Reasons will be given orally before a judge and private rooms will be provided for this purpose.

Two (2) minutes will be allowed for each contestant to present oral reasons on each class so designated. The use of notes during the presentation of oral reasons will not be permitted.

Contestants will record their placings on cards provided.

Fifty (50) points shall constitute a perfect score in the placing of a class; fifty (50) points shall constitute a perfect score for oral reasons on a class.

Each contestant will be assigned to a Group Leader who will supervise the judging of each class, observe the contestants in his group, and collect all placing cards at the conclusion of the judging of each class. All placing cards must be handed in when they are requested by the Group Leader.

While the Contest is in progress, there will be no conferring between contestants or between a contestant and anyone else except as directed by the Group Leader.

GENERAL

ABGA Sanction Show Rules shall govern each respective show. The American Boer Goat Association will accept and permanently record all wins in shows that have been determined to have met all requirements as stated below for ABGA Sanction. Failure to comply with ABGA Show Rules will result in the loss of funding and future sanctioning. ABGA requires that an ABGA Sanction Show Application be submitted to the ABGA office no less than 60 days prior to the show. NO SHOWS WILL BE SANCTIONED DURING THE WEEK OF THE ABGA NATIONAL SHOW.

ENTRIES

Any show receiving ABGA sanctioning shall be open to all exhibitors. There should be no limit on the number of animals that can be entered in a class by an exhibitor, unless the sponsoring show deems this limit necessary. Any show limiting the number of entries must state this in their rules. ABGA sanctioned shows cannot require animals to sell in a sale as a condition of participating in the show.

ELIGIBILITY OF ANIMALS

All goats must be registered in the herd book of a recognized association before time specified by the show. Recognized associations include ABGA, International Boer Goat, and the Canadian Boer Goat Association. Original registration certificates are required, though a copy of a Registration Application stamped with the date received by one of the listed associations, can be accepted for kids less than 3 months of age. Animals must be registered in the name of the exhibitor and must have been owned by the exhibitor on or before September 17, 2009.

THIS RULE WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED

ENNOBLED HERD BOOK POINTS

Only goats entered under their ABGA registration number and presenting their ABGA Certificate of Registration will be eligible to earn points for their actual placing in the show as described in the ABGA "Criteria for Ennoblement of a Boer Goat"

TATTOOS

All goats must have eligible tattoos or other means of permanent identification consistent with its registration certificate or the animal will be disqualified. The top 6 in the class plus the Champion and Reserve Champion goat's tattoos must be read and recorded. If the animal has a microchip as its permanent identification, the exhibitor is responsible for providing a microchip reader.

COMPUTING AGES

Birth dates, as listed on the registration certificate will be used to determine the class of divisions. Take the show date and count back to the birth date to determine the age and the class for the animal.

CLASSES

All animals must be registered purebred, full blood or percentage blood Boer Goats. Percentage doe classes are for goats 50% to 88%, Purebred/Full blood classes are for does that are 15/16 blood (94%) and higher 31/32 blood (97%) and higher for bucks. Progeny of fresh will NOT be allowed in the ring. At the discretion of the judge and the superintendent, goats may be let loose in the ring as a function of judging. The Champion and Reserve Champion classes will be chosen from the first and second place animals in that division of the show. Show committee reserved the right to combine or split the classes to accommodate the amount of entries.

DISQUALIFICATION

Any goat showing any pronounced defect or abnormality will be barred from the showing in any breeding classes. Artificial coloring will be a disqualification as well as illegible tattoos or tattoos that are inconsistent with the goat's registration papers. RULES AND REGULATIONS

GENERAL

Exhibitors must be 21 years of age and under as of January 1, 2009.

ENTRIES

Uses the ENLS entry forms provided, and refer to the section for Junior Purebred Swine show, for classes. Gilt and Barrow entries must be farrowed on or after January 1, 2009. Entries may be purchased animals, but must be owned by the junior exhibitor, the exhibitor's family name or exhibitor's farm name 60 days or more prior to the show.

ELIGIBILITY OF ANIMALS

All entries must meet Breed classifications standards, call for details or view our website if you're not sure of these rules. All gilts and barrows must be registered Berkshire, Chester White, Poland China or Spotted Swine.

CLASSES

Gilts will show by age and barrows will show by weight. Class breaks will be determined after they are weighed and checked in. In addition to the Gilt and Barrow classes, exhibitors are encouraged to enter the Skill-a-Thon Contest, Showmanship Competition, and Barnyard Olympics.

ENTRY FEES

Entry Fee is $25.00/head in addition to ENLS $10.00 Junior membership fee and $10.00 Team Purebred membership fee. Entries must be received by September 7, 2009 - there will be no gilt or barrow entries accepted at the show.

There is a $5.00 entry fee to participate in the Skill-a-Thon, Showmanship Competition and Barnyard Olympics if you are not showing a gilt or barrow.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

All junior entries must meet the same health requirements as the ENLS show. Health requirements see section in ENLS Premium Book.

ENTRY DEADLINE

All entries must be returned to ENLS, Anne McDaniel, P.O. Box 515, Myersville, MD 21773 by September 1, 2008.

BEDDING

Eastern National Livestock Show WILL NOT PROVIDE BEDDING. All bedding must be removed from pens before exhibitor leaves the show.

PREMIUMS

Premiums will be paid by the sliding scale in this section. Team Purebred will match all premiums paid plus $200 for Champion and $100 for Reserve Champion of each Team Purebred breed (Berkshire, Chester White, Poland China, Spotted). All non-Team Purebred breeds will be paid $50 for Champion and $25 for Reserve Champion of each breed.
